GENERAL MERCHANDISE

This Store DOES NOT Carry Richmond Goods

How often do you see it-in your own town-two stores on the same block perhaps, one crowded with customers and the other absolutely empty.

Both have the same attractive stores, apparently the same complete assortments and reasonable prices, butand here hangs the tale. THE BUSY MERCHANT CAR-RIES A BETTER QUALITY OF GOODS. QUALITY is the key-note of success these days.

For absolutely first quality goods no better market can be from experience the requirements of the Southern Trade.

Trade in the Richmond Market, Mr. Southern Merchant, and you will have the advantage of your competitor who does not.

Right merchandise, right prices, quick deliveries and low rates tell the story. A post-card will put our proposition before
